World Students Day

15 October 2019

World Students' Day was organized on 15 October 2019 to celebrate and commemorate the birth anniversary of the great legendary scientist and people's President, Dr.A.P.J. Abdul Kalam.

During the occasion, the students were asked to demonstrate literature in the Literary Exhibition.

The students presented visually scenes from dramas, poems and a film shot on Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. With the whole wing becoming a hub of literary snapshots and scenes, buzzed with a celebration of English Literature.

With fairies, Spenser's brides, Tennyson's 'Brook', Keats 'St. Agnes', Ted Hughes 'Hawk Roosting', Oliver asking for more and many more demonstrations, the event was very lively and a witness that books can be dealt in an elaborate and creative way. Students had an opportunity to extend their learning and love for books outside the classroom. This remarkable accomplishment was visited by Students and Professors of other disciplines visited the attractive and the out of world creation.

NATIONAL YOUTH DAY

12 January 2020

The National Youth Day was celebrated on 12 January 2020 in the Department of English. With the announcement of an 'Written Test with Open Book' on Swami Vivekananda's Fear Not, Be Strong and Believe in Yourself. The programme was organized by the staff in-charges, Prof. V. Sharmila, Dr. N. Latha and Dr. S. Syed Shaw.

Around 250 students participated and prizes were given in all the participants.

Apart from being a tribute to the saint on his 154 Birth Anniversary, the programme dawned a realization on the young learners giving them strength of mind and to think positively. It was a real awakening, both spiritually and psychologically.

Annual Report of the Events Celebrations

Women's Day

08 March 2020

A Literary Carnival entitled 'Pushpanjali' was organized on 08 March 2020, with a theme on 'Women in Literature and Society.' Mime, Tableau and Dumb Charade were arranged.

Around 28 students from both UG and PG participated and made it a mega celebration. Connecting materiality and literature, they expanded their imagination and knowledge of the world, familiarizing it with sound, rhythm, music and if required with words.

The students exhibited their unique literary skill and captured the theme skillfully. Dr.K.S.Dhanam, Associate Professor of English, Periyar E.V.R. College served as a Resource Person and addressed the students on women's issues and how to face the challenges of society with confidence.

Nearly 350 students of English Literature and staff members attended the Programme and made it remarkable.
